3d Ave. and 59th St.
EVERY species of merchandise is supposed to command a profit. And perhaps they do. Yet there are three classes which are popularly believed to stand more than others. Of these one is FURNITURE. In adding this department to our business we did so with the determination to conduct it on a sound basis. We could see no satisfactory reason why Furniture should not be handled to advantage without recourse to the usual exorbitant profits. Imbued with this conviction, we marked every article on the general dry-goods scale. And experience has proven the wisdom of our policy. In an almost incredible space of time we have built up a Furniture business that might justly be envied by many a concern devoted exclusively to that branch. Below we give a few sample prices of Chamber Suits. The values are remarkable. If they were not worth more than we ask, it would not pay us to advertise them. An inspection of our immense and varied stock will convince the most sceptical that we perform even more than we promise. CHAMBER SUITS, 3 PIECES, SOLID ASH, ANTIQUE FINISH, at $13.50, $15.00, $17.50, $22.00 and $25.
